In Which Style and Good Quality Accompany Low Prices

muslins are as different from last year's as a tango skirt from a hoop.

The credit goes to the new, however. Our undermuslin stock is large and many good values await you.

Undermuslins can be bought here at prices as low as they will ever be.
Fine quality materials, serviceable and in every way satisfactory.

QUAKER LACES

It is surprising that such wearing qualities can be woven into as dainty fabrics as the Quaker Laces.

They will go to the laundry and return with their lacy freshness unimpaired. The reason lies in the quality of their hidden bobbin thread.
We display a splendid assortment of Quaker
Laces in our windows, priced from 25c a yard up.

We are also showing some very beautiful patterns in creton with Wall Paper to match.

The Store That Pays No Rent

Sketches of Little OLD NEW YORK
By M. McIntyre

Telegram Bureau: Rooms 121-125 Hotel Majestic, West Twenty-second Street.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A 5 o'clock tea to copy readers, editors and reporters was given one day this week by the New York Women Suffrage party. A bunch of copy slaves at a pink tea on Fifth avenue is an unforgettable sight.

There they were with napkins on knee, tea in hand trying to look like toffins as nearly as they could get the formula from a casual study of the covers of the magazines. The pretty suffragists buzzed about the awkward men as busy and yet buoyant as the famous knitting women at a kullotine party. Happy phrase. True picture.

The women were tending to their own knitting and yet getting away with murder. The "suffs" were having all the fun, the men doing all the suffered bashful agonies in attempting to be society men.

Most of the newspaper men held their cup of tea as if it were the fatal hemlock. One man present got away with it because he had a Grecian profile and could drink tea like a picture of Lou Tellegen. He departed a hero, but it was later learned that he was not an honest-to-the-heavens newspaperman, but a society hound who had sniffed the aroma of the tea while exercising his wrist watch along the avenue and just drifted in and fitted snugly into the picture.

Leach Cross has quit the fighting game and henceforth he is Dr. Louis Wallach, and his dental parlors are in Harlem, where he has a very good practice. He has been fighting about ten years and is the hero of about 200 ring battles.

Most of the people who went to see Cross fight went because they wanted to see him beaten. In fact, as the ring-siders often stated, they wanted him to "get his block knocked off." He was very unpopular among fight fans, but he went right on winning just the same.

It pays to be unpopular in some cases for Cross is not yet thirty and he is worth about $75,000, which was all paid by those who came to see him beaten.

The pedigreed dog has been much talked about since the recent dog show at Madison Square Garden. It may not be a knock—but the fact remains that Tige Sweeney, who trains dogs for the Gentry Brothers' dog and pony show, told a group of dog fanciers in a Broadway cafe the other night that no pedigreed dog makes a good performer as a wide and low-browed mongrel of the streets. "You see," he stated, "the mut

There is wisdom in parents supplying such favorites as these, rather than permitting their children to do their own candy buying on the unwise basis of quantity rather than quality.
The craving of children for sweets is a natural one and it is a wise parent who appreciates this and supplies only the purest and best candy. It's always fresh.

has to hustle for a living and they are as smart as a New York news-boy."

It is promised that New York is to be a summer resort of enormous magnitude this year. The big hotels are now planning to take care of the visitors who will flock here. Nothing will be spared to make it the gayest city in this world and to make those who come stay.

The roof tops will be made over on all the big hotels in a lavish style. The Biltmore, Astor, McAlpin, Majestic, Waldorf and Ritz will have summer gardens that will outstrip anything ever attempted before in this line, it is predicted.

There will be dancing in the open air, concerts, cabaret and everything that goes to make up the night life in Broadway in the winter months.

A publisher of popular songs has conceived a new idea to make money. He will go from city to city including the board of trade to give him so much money to write a song about that city. He uses as examples big successes which he did not publish. So we may soon hear Broadway singing "Bridgeport," "Washington," "Toledo" or "Knoxville."

Conquers Rheumatism
In a Very Few Days

One-half teaspoonful of Rheuma taken once a day has driven the pain and agony from thousands of racked, crippled and despairing rheumatics during the last five years.

Powerful and sure; quick acting, yet harmless; Rheuma gives blessed relief almost at once. The magic name has reached every hamlet in the land and there is not a druggist anywhere who cannot tell you—if he will—of almost marvelous cures.

If you are tortured with rheumatism or sciatica, you can get two bottles of Rheuma from Wells-Haymaker Co. or any druggist for not more than $1.00, with the understanding that if it does not drive rheumatic poisons from your system—money back.—Advertisement.
